UCSB Student Arrested For Stealing Backpacks, Laptops and iPods from Recreation Center and Other Locations At UCSB

On May 23, 2007, a UCSB student recognized her stolen backpack being carried by another student, identified as Marisabel Suarez. The student contacted the UCSB Police Department and pointed Suarez out to the police. It was confirmed that the backpack, as well as other items in Suarez' possession, were stolen property. Suarez was arrested for the theft of the backpack.

A search of Suarez' apartment led to the discovery of numerous other stolen items, including laptops, iPods and other property. At this time the Police Department is attempting to identify the owners of the recovered property so that it can be returned.

If you were the victim of a theft at UCSB, you are encouraged to report it to the UCSB Police Department at 893-3446.
