

UCSB P.D. Computer Aided Dispatch Clearance Codes

Arrest	This disposition means a person associated with the case has been taken into custody and booked into county jail.
Citation Issued	This disposition means that a subject has been issued a citation and released from custody on their promise to appear in court at a later date.
Report To Follow	This disposition means that additional information needs to be compiled for a police report. When appropriate, the completed report will be submitted to the DA's office and charges may be filed.
Follow up completed	This disposition means that the officer has completed contact and obtained information to add to his report.
CSA Report	This disposition means that this report has been received by records and added for documentation purposes but does not require law enforcement follow up.
Case Closed	This disposition means that the incident has been investigated to its fullest and no further action is needed.
Referred to Judicial Affairs	This disposition means that the incident has been referred to the Office of Judicial Affairs and may potentially result in a Student Conduct Hearing.
Log entry complete	This disposition means that an information of important to patrol, but not issued a case number, has been added to the log.
Item Returned to Owner	This disposition means that a Lost & Found item or evidence has been returned to the rightful owner.
Located	This disposition means that an individual, whether lost, missing, or a person of interest, that police officers were looking for has been found.
Field Interview	This disposition means that an officer has contacted an individual in the field and released them without incident.
No Crime	This disposition means that, after investigating a situation, the officers have determined that no crime occurred.
No Report	This disposition means that, after investigating the situation, the officers concluded that no report was required.
Negative Service	This disposition means that an officer made an attempt to serve an arrest or a search warrant but were unable to locate the subject.
Gone on arrival	This disposition means that the subject is no longer in the area and left before the officer's arrival.
Unable to locate	This disposition means that the officers were unable to locate the person they were looking for.
In Service	This disposition means that the officer has completed contact and obtained information to add to his report.
Assist complete	This disposition means that the officer has completed assisting contact and obtained information to add to his report.
Public Assist	This disposition means that the officer has completed assisting a person, reporting party, another officer or person from another agency and is no longer on the call.
Public Relations	This disposition means that an officer has completed his contact with an individual by providing them additional information and resources.
False and unfounded	This disposition means that, after investigating a situation, the officers determined that the incident was falsely reported.
Handled by Medics	This disposition means a person has been released to Emergency Medical Services personnel and transported to the nearest medical facility.
Alarm Malfunction	This disposition means that an alarm activation was due to faulty equipment and alarm technicians have been notified.
Employee error	This disposition means that an alarm activation was the result of an accidental activation by an employee.
False alarm, unknown cause	This disposition means that an alarm was activated but no reason for the activation could be determined.
Unknown cause	This disposition means that an alarm was activated but no reason for the activation could be determined.
Vehicle unoccupied	This disposition means that a vehicle parked in such a manner that seems suspicious is occupied, there are no violations, no crime has been committed, nor has the vehicle been abandoned.
Verbal Warning	This means that the officers verbally admonished the subject(s) contacted and educated them on
Bicycles(s) impounded	This disposition means that the bicycle whether illegally parked or recovered as a stolen property has been taken to the Community Service Organization Impound Yard.
Area checks clear	This disposition means that the area was thoroughly checked and there are no threats detected.
Cancelled Event	This disposition means that the Reporting Party called back to say that assistance was no longer needed.
Dispatch Handled	This disposition means that the incident reported did not require law enforcement response.
OIC Advised	This disposition means the Officer in Charge of the shift was made aware of the situation reported to the police department.